

UP-COMING EVENTS OF HK BIOETHICS ASSOCIATION

1. HKBA will co-organise a seminar on 2nd July 05 (10 am – 12 N) with the Governance in Asia Research Centre at the City University of Hong Kong. Topic is : Patient-Physician Relationship and the Marketing of Health Care: Cross-Cultural Perspectives. Venue is: G7619, FHS Conference Room, 7/F, Academic Building, City University of Hong Kong (near lift No. 3).
2. A seminar on Medical Ethics will be organized in August by HKBA during the visit of Dr. Andrew Edgar, Senior Lecturer, department of Philosophy from Cardiff, UK. Dr. Stephen Lam, council member of HKBA, will also speak.
3. A talk by Dr. Hammes on Advanced Care planning /advanced directive will be jointly organized by Health Authority and HKBA in early December. Professor H M Chan, Associate Professor of Department of Public and Social Administration of City University of Hong Kong and council member of HKBA, will represent HKBA in the organizing committee.

Please visit our website at www.bioethics.org.hk regularly as to get the updated information on coming events.